2018 Project Playwright Consent Agreement

Playwright, by submission, either physically or electronically, of their work to Sanguine Theatre Company agrees and consents to the following terms and provisions:

- I. That Playwright's submission is solely the work, product and intellectual property of the Playwright.
- II. Playwright understands that the $5.00 submission fee that is to accompany the submission is non-refundable.
- III. If selected as a finalist or winner, Playwright consents to Sanguine Theatre Company's unlimited use of excerpts from Playwright's submitted work for future promotion of subsequent Sanguine Theatre Company's Project Playwright Festivals.
- IV. If selected as a finalist or winner, Playwright authorizes Sanguine Theatre Company to produce and present to the general public the Playwright's submitted work in the form of a theatrical performance. Provided, however, that this grant of authority to produce is limited to and shall not exceed a period of twelve (12) consecutive months from and after the date that Sanguine Theatre Company publicly announces the top entries. Further, Sanguine Theatre Company, in the promotion of any and all theatrical performances, shall adequately and fully advertise the Playwright's name and the fact that Playwright was one of the top entries of Project Playwright.
- V. If selected as a finalist or winner, and Sanguine Theatre Company elects to produce and present the Playwright's work to the public, Playwright agrees that Sanguine Theatre Company shall not be responsible for any and all costs and/or expenses associated with Playwright's travel to and from the site selected by Sanguine Theatre Company for production, technical planning meetings, readings, performances or other associated and/or related events.
- VI. Sanguine Theatre Company reserves the right to accept or reject any play submitted to the contest for any reason.
